

I LOVE the no call rule and don't want to be bothered by salespeople using my phone that I pay for, to try and sell ,if I want something I will go look or call someone for it. Now If we could do something about the (not available) or (blocked call)that comes up s you don't know who is calling. The FCC should leave it alone unless they want to pay my bill. Mrs. Laraine DeGeus